

AMIGOS Lifelong Leaders Luncheon

Friday, January 24, 2025

The Briar Club, Houston Texas

Co-Chair Committee

Molly and Coert Voorhees
Viviana and David Denechaud

Mission and Impact

Since our founding in 1965, 30,000 students have completed an AMIGOS program, including 2,500 students from the Houston area alone. AMIGOS programs impact youth in three main areas: leadership development, cultural competency, and commitment to lifelong service. In 2024, programs are operating in seven countries of the Americas.

Service and Program Themes

Public Health
Leadership and Sports
Environmental Conservation
Climate Change
Renewable Energy
Food Security
Sustainable Agriculture

Mission

AMIGOS inspires leaders through authentic immersion and service experiences.

Vision

We envision a world where all people are lifelong leaders sharing responsibility for our global community.

Your Sponsorship Makes a Difference

Your sponsorship supports financial assistance for students from the U.S. and Latin America as well as new program development. Partner with AMIGOS and demonstrate your commitment to youth leadership and community development. Together, we will ensure students are equipped with the skills and perspective to become the community and business leaders we need today and in the future.
